75th REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATION

Army Public School, SP Marg, Lucknow, geared up to celebrate 75th Republic Day with immense patriotic zeal and pride on 26th January 2024. The celebration commenced with the unfurling of the National Flag by the Principal, Ms. Seema Tara. The soulful rendition of the National Anthem echoed in the entire campus. The Principal took the salute of the March Past by Students' Council of the senior wing, NCC cadets and the students of the four houses - Rana Pratap, Shivaji, Ashoka and Ranjeet, who marched in a spectacular, impressive and disciplined manner, leaving the audience spellbound. The Head Boy, Akash Singh, delivered an impressive and powerful speech to mark the momentous day. He highlighted the importance of the Constitution and its unique features such as Sovereign, Socialist, Secular, Democratic and Republic, enshrined in the Preamble of the Constitution. The assembly area reverberated with patriotic song sung by the mellifluous school choir. Rashmi Rai of Class IX recited a self-composed poem 'Mera Bharat Mahaan' to commemorate the making of our Indian Constitution. The students left no stone unturned to express their love for their Motherland with full patriotic fervor.

It was a moment of great pride for RANA PRATAP House to win the trophy for 'Best Marching Contingent' in Inter-House March Past Competition. The Principal addressed the gathering and congratulated everyone on the momentous occasion. She reminded, that as the largest democracy in the world, we must always contribute in celebrating diversity that is the hallmark of this great nation. The students left with the National Flag waving high with pride and respect.

76th ARMY DAY CELEBRATION ARMY DAY PARADE & SHAURYA SANDHYA

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath inaugurated the three-day 'Know Your Army' festival at Surya Khel Parisar, emphasising the significance of the Indian Army in upholding the nation's security and sovereignty.

It is a matter of great pride that Central Command, Lucknow, has been selected for this ceremony. In view of the upcoming Army Day on 15 January, an exhibition has been set up in Lucknow. About 185 students of APS SP Marg have explored the Know Your Army Festival exhibition featuring a showcase of various modern weapons of the Indian Army, at the Surya Khel Parisar grounds.

The students of APS SP Marg proudly witnessed the spectacular Army Day parade showcasing India's indigenous military prowess and cultural diversity at the Parade Ground of 11 GRRC.

In a grand display of military valour and cultural heritage, the Indian Army celebrated its 76th Army Day with a spectacular Army Day Parade at Thakur Sheodatt Singh Parade Ground, 11 GRRC and breathtaking event called "Shaurya Sandhya" at the Surya Khel Parisar, Lucknow Cantonment. The events were attended by the Defence Minister, Rajnath Singh, the Chief of Defence Staff, General Anil Chauhan, the Chief of the Army Staff, General Manoj Pande, and other civil and military officials.

The day was marked by a series of exhilarating performances that showcased the diverse skills and unwavering spirit of the Army. Students and teachers of APS SP Marg witnessed the programme and were enthralled by daredevil motorcycle stunts, traditional martial arts display, like kalaripayattu and gatka, and a captivating performance by warriors from the northeast.

The static display featured an array of cutting-edge military equipment, including Akash missiles, K9 Vajra combat vehicles, anti-drone systems, and Bofors guns, exemplifying the Army's technological advancements.

Workshop on CPR & First Aid

"Safety is not a gadget but a state of mind. Safety First, Safety Always."

A workshop on Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and First Aid was conducted at APS SP Marg for the teaching and non-teaching staff. The workshop was conducted by a team of Doctors from Command Hospital led by Maj Bhawana Sharma. It imparted knowledge of commonly occurring situations in our day-to-day life especially with students in school. Teachers were explained the need to remain calm in adverse situations and how to give basic medical aid to anybody, if required. A hands-on training was demonstrated in CPR and other medical conditions like breathing problems, asthma, choking, fainting, seizures, bruises etc. It was an interactive and educative session to equip teachers with skills and confidence to use first aid and CPR in real life situation. The workshop was followed by a doubt clearing session which was dealt by the doctor with care and patience.

Workshop on Cyber Crime

An informative session was conducted by Cyber Expert, Col. (Retd) Sanjeev Relia and Advocate Ms. Shonan Mahajan on Cyber Crime.

They detailed the students about malware, ransomware, digital attack, digital arrest, digital footprints and how to safely access the internet. They threw light on some of the digital fraud cases that have occurred in our country and how they effect the teenagers. They also spoke about the random links that we receive on our mobiles that can hack our phones and other preventive measures as to how we can keep our mobile phones from getting hacked or getting a malware. 200 students of Classes IX and XI attended the workshop. The students and teachers also asked questions and clarified their doubts.
